The screenshot displays the '功率' (Power) control section of the MAX monitoring software. A large digital display shows '20%' power. Below it, settings for power (20%), frequency (1,000 Hz), and duty cycle (100%) are visible. A '启动' (Start) button is set to '持续输出' (Continuous Output). A warning dialog box is overlaid on the interface, containing the text '即将断电, 请做好防护策略!' (Power outage imminent, please prepare protection strategy!) and buttons for '确定' (Confirm) and '取消' (Cancel). The background interface includes a '报警监控' (Alarm Monitoring) table and a '基本参数' (Basic Parameters) section.

The screenshot shows the same MAX monitoring software interface, but with a password prompt dialog box overlaid. The dialog box has a title bar '密码' (Password) and a text input field containing '密|码'. Below the input field is a green '应用' (Apply) button. The background interface is dimmed, showing the '报警监控' table and '基本参数' section.
